

SOMEBODY YOU

As you read down the first column, cross out every seventh word. When you come to the end of a column, move to the top of the next and keep counting.

Cross out every word that rhymes with “teach.”

Cross out words that begin with the letter “a.”

Cross out words and names that refer to Scotland or something Scottish.

Warning!!! You may encounter words or terms you don’t know. (Hint: haggis. Whatever is haggis?!) Be brave. Be curious. Look up those words. Learn something new and grow your brain.

| | | | |
|-----------|------------|-----------|------------------|
| speech | kilt | meet | never |
| tartan | leech | will | breach |
| I | bagpipes | reach | leave |
| laird | snuggle | you | ask |
| never | afraid | beach | daydream |
| Edinburgh | will | arid | screech |
| globe | clans | Macbeth | I |
| bleach | peach | curb | adventure |
| haggis | accomplish | forsake | Greyfriars Bobby |
| preach | loch | allowance | you |

Read the remaining ten words from left to right to discover a special message God has for you.

God says, “ _____

